

FARO Convention Meeting: Heritage as a means for societal challenges
16 May 2019, 10:00 - 18:00 Location: Lumière, Bassin 88, 6211 AK Maastricht

Programme
09.30	Registration
10.15	Opening Michaëla Hanssen, moderator of the meeting and programme leader Faro-programme, Cultural Heritage Agency of the Netherlands
10.20	Welcome Mayor of Maastricht, Mayor of Heerlen, General Director of the Cultural Heritage Agency of the Netherlands (film)
	Introduction film about the Faro Convention
	Citizen participation at the centre of Heritage Counts, the policy document of the Ministry of Culture Barbera Wolfensberger, Director-general Culture and Media at ministry of Education, Culture and Science
10.45	Coffee break
11.15	An overview of the Faro way <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Faro principles Francesc Pla, Council of Europe, Culture and Cultural Heritage Division • Facilitating new initiatives in the civil society Prosper Wanner, Faro Convention Network • Example from Finland Ulla Salmela, Finnish Heritage Agency • Example from Austria Andrea Sieber, Alps-Adria University Klagenfurt-Vienna
12.15	Lunch
13.30	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Examples from Maastricht and Heerlen • Participatory governance in the municipality of Maastricht: the 'colours-approach' Tim van Wanroij, Project leader 'Omgevingsvisie', Municipality of Maastricht • Heritage and participation in the municipality of Maastricht Eric Wetzels, Scientific Policy Officer, Municipality of Maastricht • Heritage and international networks of the Meuse-Rhine Euroregion Mathea Severeijns, director IBA Parkstad
14.10	Introduction to the Faro-programme of the Cultural Heritage Agency and the field visits Michaëla Hanssen
14.30	Coffee break
14.45	Field visits Adaptive reuse – Walking tour, English spoken You will visit the Frontenpark and other Maastricht sites where you will reflect upon the role citizen participation plays in the adaptive reuse of industrial and military buildings.
	Post-war/restoration neighbourhoods – Bus tour, Dutch spoken Visits several post-war neighbourhoods in order to discuss the spatial and social challenges and reflect upon the way heritage and heritage communities can play a role in tackling those challenges.
	Via Belgica – Bus tour, Dutch spoken You will drive through the hills of Limburg and reflect upon the possibilities heritage participation harbours for economical development and tourism.
	Heiligdomsvaart Saint Servatius – Walking tour, Dutch spoken Once life in this region revolved around the Catholic Church. Together you will reflect upon the meaning participation has within this field of heritage, nowadays and in the future.
	Culinary Intangible heritage – Walking tour, Dutch spoken Together you will bake your very own Limburgian vlaai and learn about this and other delicious local culinary traditions and the heritage communities connected to it.
17.00	Interactive reflection on field visits Michaëla Hanssen
17.30	Informal reception